

You'll Want Your New Spring Suit for Easter

It Is Ready for You Here--and at a Reasonable Price! Men--Read This

Easter eagerness offers no temptation for this store to boost clothing prices. Our prices are set when the goods arrive and there they stay--always reasonable--always representing unusual values. If you buy your suit here in time for Easter you receive just the same good service and just the same opportunity for careful selection that is offered at any other time. "Easter Suits" are our regular Spring stock and priced, as usual, at very attractive prices.

You Must See What a Fine Desirable Easter Suit You Can Purchase Here for $20.00 or $25

The market was combed to secure fine suits to sell at these prices. Present conditions make it extremely difficult to secure suits of high-grade all-wool fabrics and permanent colorings to sell at reasonable prices. But we are pleased with our success along these lines and we know our customers will be pleased with our offerings. As usual we stand squarely behind every suit we sell.

Our Best Values in Men's Spring Suits Sell at $15, $16.50, $18, $20, $22.50, $25 and Up to $35

SAW GHOST OF VICTIM FOR YEARS

Confesses To Murder Committed Decade Ago.

New York, April 21.—Because he thought he saw the accusing ghost of his brother-in-law, whom he shot and killed nine years ago in New York city, Michael Donnelly confessed to the murder to a jailer in the police station at Pawtucket, R. I., where he was confined for intoxication, and was brought back to this city to stand trial.

"Thank God," said Donnelly, as he signed a written statement of his crime at police headquarters, "I can now get the first night's sleep I have had since I shot Bill Ross nine years ago."

Donnelly, who is 51 years old, said he quarreled with his sister's husband because, he said, Ross mistreated her and their four children. On the night of April 7, 1907, Donnelly went to the home of the Ross family, at No. 361 East Seventy-sixth street and, fearing Ross was about to attack him, he said in his confession, he shot him.

Donnelly was chased through the streets by a crowd but escaped. He left the city and wandered all over the country, taking employment as a wire worker in one city until his "nerve was worn out" by "Bill Ross' ghost."

Then he would move on to another town.

Traveling from coast to coast, Donnelly's statement reads, he could not shake off his spectral pursuer, but he did not take refuge in intoxication until the night of the anniversary of the murder, April 7 last, in Pawtucket. Then he was arrested and sentenced to 20 days' imprisonment.

"Bill Ross came into my cell and pointed his finger at me and I had to tell I was the man that killed him," Donnelly said.

Donnelly told the police his sister lives on Long Island but he does not know her address. In the nine years after he shot her husband he sent her money every week through a friend, he says, for the support of herself and her children.

CHINUBHAI MADHAVLAL, HINDU BARONET, DEAD

Calcutta, India, April 21.—The death is announced of Sir Chinubhai Madhavlal, the first and only member of the Hindu race, which constitutes more than half the population of the whole British Empire, to be created a baronet. He was 52 years old.

Sir Chinubhai's grandfather was the pioneer of the cotton industry in the province of Gujarat, starting the first spinning mill at Ahmedabad, where there are now fifty mills.

PRIEST SAVES SACRED VESSELS IN SCHOOL FIRE

New York, April 21.—Flames wrecked the upper floors of St. Charles Borromeo's parochial school at 23 Sidney place, Brooklyn. Two alarms were turned in.

The children were absent on their holidays. Father Frederick Low rushed into the school and saved the sacred vessels on the altar from flames and smoke.

SMOKE RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver, and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 50c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O.—Adv.

He accompanied a Serbian force in a retreat which was as replete with horrors as any of the campaigns of the present war. When the Russians declared war on Turkey in 1877 Villiers returned to the near East, and followed the Russian armies from the firing line of the first shot to the proclamation of peace at San Stefano, within sight of Constantinople. His next experience of war was in Afghanistan. Then came the Egyptian campaigns, when the young artist had many escapes of the hair breadth variety. He accompanied the expedition up the Nile to the relief of Khartoum. He was in two wrecks on the Nile journey, and he accompanied Stewart across the desert. He made a trip across Canada with the Governor-General, and a lecture tour of America. The war between Japan and China next attracted his attention, and he then returned to the Balkans to report Greece's disastrous war on Turkey. He has been among those present at every important war since then. Villiers was the first to use the motion picture camera on the battlefield, and he was also the first war correspondent to make use of a bicycle.

SEAMEN WIN DEMANDS.

New York, April 21.—Increased pay has been granted by many ship lines without the seamen being obliged to strike for their demands, according to Augustus H. Brown, business agent of the Sailors' Eastern & Gulf Association. Twenty thousand men have won their demands, he said, and this leaves 20,000 more, including a few thousand sailors and marine engineers, cooks, stewards and waiters, to strike May 1, according to the union's intentions.

PAPER SHORTAGE IS HURTING LITERATURE

London, April 21.—Newspapers which have been hard hit by the government restrictions on the importation of paper and pulp, are calling attention to certain departments of the government where they claim there is enormous waste of paper.

"Probably the country needs no reminder of the fact," remarks the Daily Mail, "in that the extravagant use of paper the state is in a very exposed glass house." The paper then takes up various departments to show that tons of paper are wasted every year in the production of government publications.

"Huge blue books," it adds, "are produced at enormous expense. The Royal Commission on the Treatment of Sewage, which sat for years, furnished blue books which weighed forty pounds contained 5,293 pages, and were printed at a cost of 50,000 pounds—about nine pounds ($45) a page.

"It is clear that the government have only to set their own house in order to secure a very considerable saving in the consumption of paper."

Calanthe Temple, No. 18, Pythian Sisters, will celebrate their ninth anniversary Tuesday evening, April 25, at Castle hall, Citizens' building, 1035 Main street. All members and Pythians are invited.
